About

I am a skilled Full Stack Developer with over a year of experience, specializing in front-end development with Vue, Nuxt, and Tailwind CSS to create responsive, visually appealing web applications. Additionally, I have strong back-end knowledge in Hasura, Node.js, and Golang, allowing me to build robust and scalable solutions. I am passionate about continuous learning and improving my skills, especially in modern development tools and remote work. Based in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, I am eager to explore opportunities that offer growth and the chance to contribute globally.
